"Your virtual presentation, which included various forms of media, encouraged students and staff to use their interests and passions to create a future that is true to their core beliefs. You were able to provide countless examples of ways you used creativity to solve problems at each stage of your life."

Matt Johnston
 Principal, Dr. Marion Hilliard Sr. PS, TDSB

"Sean has the unique ability to captivate audiences of students and adults both in the physical and virtual environment!...His workshops are a must have in your school."

Danielle Norville
 Student Success Transitions Counsellor, TDSB

"In the United States the reviews were phenomenal! I am proud to know of such a giving man who is willing to use his gifts and talents to inspire a new generation to rise up and take advantage of the opportunities afforded to them or be courageous enough to create their own."

Alethea Bonello, Southeast Region, NAACP,
 Atlanta GA
